

For scribes and worship arts leaders

Many are busy working in my name ... but few are in my will.

There are many who claim to represent me in this last day through their spiritual gift, yet they do not know me. They teach, proclaim and decree the name of the Lord, but their hearts are not with me. Steadily, they have sold themselves out to this world. I, Sons of God, have rejected them for they have knowingly, willingly and deliberately misled my people. They have knowingly, willingly and deliberately deceived themselves.

Yet, I have called you ... remnant. I have prepared you, fashioned you and given you a prophetic vision to lead. I've raised you up for such a time as this ... to expose those who seek to deceive my people concerning their mission and purpose. You shall call out the wolves crouching among the sheep – through your scribal gift, your prophetic dance, the song of the Lord or whatever portion I have placed in your heart.

Though the temptation of entertainment, crouches at your door ... I, your God, will place you at my feet. There, you shall seek me, and will go where I will send you. Through your scribal pen and at your tongue, at the command of your feet and hands, you will share my heart with my people – the bound and the loosed.

Be warned, there will be many who question whether I have sent you. I say to you today, your fruit will testify. Your unchanging hand in delivering the pure gospel will testify. Your life will testify ... as it is consecrated before me and you present yourselves as a living sacrifice.

I am presenting my word through your teachable spirit as love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance ... for against such, there is not law. By this fruit shall you be judged and by this fruit shall I separate the sheep from the goats, the wheat from the tares, the sucker plant ... from the vine.

I am calling forth a true warrior of pure heart, worship and praise. I am raising up Sons of God who are not afraid to acknowledge their God.

There will be many imitators. Yet, I have placed great leaders and ministers of scribal gifts (as well as other worship arts leaders) in the direct path of sheep who have been misled or who are in need of divine direction and instruction.

Even these compromise – standing in agreement with the church of compromise ... lukewarm saints. Yet, they will not speak through the dance, the pen, the movement, the music ...! Yet, they will not prophesy through the dance, the pen, the movement, the music ...! You must rise up – and go where I have called you to go. You must stand where I have told you to stand ... and the hands of the enemy will be stayed. Every imitating spirit will be exposed.

What I have given you is unique, and I urge you – do not compare yourself to any man. I urge you to take on the burden that I have given you. I urge you to seek my face ... that your spirit may be full and your soul renewed by the power of my words.

The vision of the imitators will fall when faced with the Spirit of Truth. Though the enemy seeks to steal your vision, duplicate your mission and present themselves as carbon copies of your destiny and purpose ...
